

Financial literacy for women 55+

The Australian Shareholders' Association (ASA) will be running workshops funded by a grant from Ecstra (formerly Financial Literacy Australia) to assist women 55+ to build confidence to participate in financial decision-making. These half-day workshops are free for women over 55.

'Own your financial future' workshop

We introduce you to the financial plan, financial concepts and superannuation and explain some of the jargon. This workshop will prepare you for the questions a professional adviser is likely to ask, the fees charged and the resources available. They're aimed at giving you greater agency over your financial future. Workshops include morning tea and a workbook.

These free workshops are geared towards women who have never been involved in managing their finances or investments and who want the confidence to have financial conversations with their partners, children and financial advisers.

The workshops will be presented three times in Perth so please select the date which suits you best.
