This form should be signed by the securityholder. If a joint holding, either securityholder may sign. If signed by the securityholder's attorney, the power of attorney must have been previously noted by the registry or a certified copy attached to this form. If executed by a company, the form must be executed in accordance with the company's constitution and the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth).

A corporation must sign under seal or by its duly appointed attorney in accordance with the company's constitution and the Australian Corporations Legislation.

This authority may be sent to the company and/or the registry 48 hours in advance of the meeting. The authority will be retained by the company.

Should your Standing Proxy not attend the Meeting, your votes will roll to the Chairman of the Meeting. If you lodge a proxy form for this Issuer or attend a Meeting and revoke the proxy your standing proxy will be revoked for that meeting only.

To revoke this Standing Proxy for all meetings, you will need to submit a written revocation. If you appoint a proxy in respect to multiple Issuers and you submit a written revocation in respect of one Issuer, your instructions in respect of the non-revoked Issuer(s) will remain in force.

Please note that this is a generic form to assist Securityholders. It is the responsibility of the Securityholder to confirm that this form complies with the specific requirements of an Issuer's constitution.
